Or you may decide to carve out a new chapter for your people. It is your choice! Your people may come from a far-off land, or be kin of the ancient Chaos Legions. It is all up to you! You can build up a grand vision to replace the one you lost. You will even be able to hire fellow Craftworlders to help you in your war. The Chaos Space Marine Legion as a whole has some very capable allies. Adeptus Mechanicus are the ones who will help you to battle the greater threats, to protect your planet from the Dark Angels. You may even be able to recruit them as your own! You're your people's hope, their world's leader – and the one who will go down in the greatest battle in the history of the Imperium! Let the First Founding be your legacy! As an optional but very welcome addition, you can now select a Black Legion Prime or Traitor Titan. While the Legion itself will only be able to possess a relic that a Prime possesses, the Prime or Traitor Titan can be your very own personal artefact. We have also brought over the Aquilonion Vanguard Space Marine Traitor Legion datasheet. For more information on the Cult Mechanicus, visit the Cult Mechanicus Codex. For more information on the Black Legion, visit the Black Legion Codex. For more information on the Astartes, visit the Adeptus Astartes Codex.
